

Diane Lynne Alton

June 5, 1940 - January 19, 2022

Dodgeville - Diane Lynne Alton, age 81, of Dodgeville passed away on Wednesday, January 19, 2022.

She was born on June 5, 1940 to Reuben G. and Myrtle I. (Smith) Alton in Dodgeville, WI. Diane attended Lincoln Country School # 8. Diane was blessed to have a mother who taught her to live independently and the skills to work with her disability. She moved to Madison and worked for 30 plus years at the VA Hospital in the Laundry Department. Diane retired in 2011 and moved back to Iowa County to be closer to her family.

Diane is survived by her sister, Pat Powell; her brothers Roger (Joanne) Alton and Richard (Darlene) Alton; her special nephews and nieces Steve (Janie) Powell, Scott Powell, Sandy Powell-Trollop, Jonathan (Kacie) Alton, Stephanie (Tony) Russo, Rod (Rhonda) Alton and Sherry (Bill) McKenzie. In addition, she had seventeen great nephews and nieces.

She was preceded in death by her father, Reuben in 1987, her mother, Myrtle in 1998, her brother-in-law Donald Powell.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Sienna Crest staff and residents who provided a second family to Diane for the past many years!

Diane brought so much joy to the family and will be greatly missed. We are blessed with many fond memories that will be a part of us forever.

“Joan and I have been so impressed that Diane was always cheerful. She never missed a chance to send Christmas cards and notes as long as she was able to. Her ability to live independently was a marvelous tribute to the efforts that Diane and her family put into making this possible. We are very sorry that we can't be at Diane's memorial service. We miss Diane's good cheer and send all our love and fond memories. Love, Don and Joan Alton
