“ My Aunt Marguerite was a wonderful lady. Her laugh was infectious and she shared it so freely. She was a wonderful seamstress and the girls were always dressed to match when they were young. My favorite memory was her ability to produce the most lovely banana curled pigtails on the girls topped by beautiful bows that matched their outfits. Boy was I envious!!

My Aunt Marguerite and Uncle Joe were salt of the earth people who loved their family and professed their faith proudly and openly. Many laughs were shared each time we visited with always a new Sven & Ole joke. What wonderful examples they set for their family and community.

I miss them both and am so happy they have been reunited in their "heavenly" home. My love & deepest sympathy to Dorine, Lynn, Joan, John and their families. God bless you always, Diane
