“ We are sad to hear of Tom's passing. He was a vibrant personality and I enjoyed when he shared his book about Jake, with us. He was a visitor at the humane society where we enjoyed his visits and helping him find Brei.

“ I always remember walking into Tom's room, and he always had a smile on his face. He would tell me these farming stories and that he knew my family pretty well. I always enjoyed talking to him, and always wish I had more time to sit and chat. I am very sorry for your loss. He was a great man.
