“ Thanks for updating Timm's obituary. Rest in peace my friend.

“ So sorry to hear of Timm's passing, Shelly. I remember Jess not being able to tell Timm and Todd apart until he realized one wore red tennis shoes and the other wore blue tennis shoes. I still couldn't tell them apart!

Love to you and your family,

Jo

“ Thanks Jo! I have so many wonderful memories of our families. :) The clue to telling the twins apart was that Timm had more dimples than Todd. :) If all else failed, the shoes did the trick!

“ Thanks for thinking of us and sharing your memory Jo.

“ To the entire Schroeder family:

My deepest condolences to each of you. Timm truly was a wonderful man with a personality to match. I still remember how much he jokingly teased me in high school, and you could tell, he loved every minute of it, but, oh how he made me smile and laugh so very hard and made my day complete! Years later and to this day, I still cherish the gold dipped rose (that resides in my hall curio) that he delivered to me at UW Hospital after a surgery in 2005. He was always so thoughtful and kind-hearted. May his life's precious memory forever live on in the loved ones that surround you. Love and God bless!

“ Having grown up with Timm and Todd and being buddies, a lot of memories come back. Both of them were always helpful. Timm helped us move into our house and work on a couple projects. Diane remembered how he stepped in to help keep me away from the house when a surprise birthday party for me was being put together (not a tough job but we had a fun evening.) My father recalled and appreciated how he would stop in to visit when he was in Dodgeville. Although over time our meetings became fewer he will be missed by us.

“ Still remember moving into the neighborhood as the young couple with little kids and being a math teacher to a few of the Schroeder kids. Timm came back a few times after he had moved to Janesville. He always made sure to stop over and talk with Colleen & I. Sorry for all the losses your family has had to endure but glad to think that Timm is now sharing the rest of eternity with those family members that have gone before him. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the rest of the Schroeder family. Den & Colleen Polglaze.

“ Lots of good memories of Timm and Todd when we all lived on Division Street. Sitting on the rock wall by the phone company, playing neighborhood games or sharing Doritos and Mountain Dew. Thinking of your family.

“ The last time I saw Timm he was with all of his Davies aunts and uncles and so obviously enjoying his visit with them. The loss of Schrades will be felt, but I can only imagine how happy your parents must be as they are now in the company of their twins. My sympathies to all of you.
