

Alice I. Rosenberger

June 24, 1923 - March 29, 2017

Dodgeville – Alice Rosenberger, age 93, of Dodgeville, passed away on Wednesday, March 29, 2017 at Upland Hills Health.

She was born on June 24, 1923 in Milwaukee, a daughter of the late Reid and Irene (Morrow) Gibbon. She grew up on a farm near Rewey, Wisconsin and attended Willow Park country school, which was on the corner of the Gibbon farm. She graduated from Rewey High School in 1940 and went to Madison Vocational Business School. She worked at Madison Wholesale Drug Co. until she married James Rosenberger on November 6, 1943 at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Madison. They lived in Milwaukee when their first son was born. They moved to Greendale, WI, where their other children were born. In 1964, they moved to Burlington.

Alice worked for Northern Engineering Labs for 23 years. After retiring she did volunteer work for St. Mary's Church, LOVE INC., Meals on Wheels, Franciscan Missions. She moved to Dodgeville in 2006 and did volunteer work for the Iowa County Historical Museum.

Alice is survived by her children James (Teresa) Rosenberger of Mineral Point, John Rosenberger of North Lake, Mary Peck of Burlington; her daughter-in-law Sandra Rosenberger of Loyal; eight grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; four step grandsons; her sister Dolores Zager of Webster,

New York.

She was preceded in death by her son William, her parents, her sister Aletha Miller, two brothers-in-law Lloyd Miller and Donald Zager.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 1, 2017 at the GORGEN-McGINLEY & AYERS FUNERAL HOME in Dodgeville. Monsignor Daniel Ganshert will officiate. Burial will be held at Bryn Zion Cemetery. Friends may call from 9:00 a.m. until time of services on Saturday at the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

“ Alice I. Rosenberger

---

November 15, 2022 at 06:49 AM

“ I got to know Alice through our shared interest in our family genealogy. I have missed contact with her since her last move. Much of the information I have included on Ancestry.com is because Alice did all the work. She was my mother's cousin, and I enjoyed her. My condolences to her family.

---

Jerry Montgomery - April 28, 2018 at 01:26 AM