“ She was a wonderful person, she would take the time to say hello, give her love and attention to you if you ever needed it, let you know she was there for you. She was an amazingly kind and great person who could make a gloomy day better by trying to make you laugh or smile and she will be truly missed.

“ Annie touched the world like few others. Full of passion and love, she was a titan of compassion and patience. A true inspiration, she always saw the best in people and did her best to give without a shadow of expectation of getting anything in return. With a single sentence she could calm, excite, or inspire a group of people like no one I have ever known. A truly Magickal woman.

“ This was such a shock and an even bigger loss for everyone. Annie was such a joy, she was such a ray of light in so many people's lives. She was always so welcoming, made you feel appreciated and loved. She could always make you laugh, no matter what kind of day you were having, and it takes a very special person to be able to do that, and Annie was one of them. But she won't ever truly be gone, the light that she left, which shines brighter than the Sun, will continue to shine in those she left behind, in her family, her loved ones, her friends, everyone who she touched, her light will continue to shine. A truly amazing, warm hearted soul, you will be missed Annie, and one day we can all meet again, and sit around each other in a giant field catching up on everything and once again laughing. To her family and loved ones, I am truly sorry, my heart goes out to you, my thoughts go out to you. <3 <3 <3 <3 <3

“ There is no one that cared more for her peers as Annie did. She would always ask how my day was going, and always asked me if there was anything she can do. I am sadden by the loss, but I know she is in a better place, and will always be missed by me.

“ Annie, I am so glad to have met you. Every time we talked over discord you always brought such sweetness and deviousness. That's why I will miss you. You are such a fun person, so open and caring, and always showed us love. I'm in disbelief you are gone now and I hope you're looking down on us knowing we love you.

“ I am at a loss for words. I never got the chance to hold her or give her a big hug to thank her for everything she has done. She gave so much of herself and love to others that she was an angel.

Annie, you gave joy when there was despair.
Your love will go on forever because you were a joy.
I was blessed to have you in my life.
You gave the one I love the most hope and the love I could not give.
You were the beam of light that brightened his heart.
You gave him strength when I could not.
So my dearest friend I love you.
I will always carry you in my heart

“ I met Ann on Twitch, via her wonderful daughter, Carrie. We started out as friends in 2012 and became a couple a year later. Ann was a fantastic woman and my other half for 9 years. She helped me become a better man and helped me learn so much about myself that I could never have on my own. I shared with her all my hopes and dreams, my secrets, and my heart. She was home to me.

She was an inspiration to me on so many levels and still is to this day. I know that she is no longer here with us, but she is always with me in my heart. You are the best thing that ever happened to me. I'll always be grateful and happy for having you in my life and being part of yours. I love you to the moon and back, my Annie. Much love.

Oh Knockers...lease know that you are in my constant thoughts and prayers. It is never easy having to say goodbye for now to our most treasured "loves". The sin unfortunately does not get any better with time.(in my experience). Just remember how much "your Annie" loves you and rest assured that one day you will be reunited for eternity. Much love always.

I met Annie during one of the Operating Nina marathons and couldn't be happier that I did. She was such a joy to be around and was funny to boot. Annie had watch me grow up over the years and helped me get over difficult occurrences that happen in my life. Annie was like a second mom for me she was there when I needed someone to talk to, got me to go out of my comfort zone to experience new things and always got me to smile even though things looked grim. Annie will be dearly missed.

“ I met Annie 9 years ago via our mutual friend Des. She was a very caring and kind woman who always supported our streams. She would be there at the very start of the stream and chat away about anything and everything. I would chat with her about the Carolina Panthers and other NFL teams and she would watch the games and say how she thought of me. She was a big Green Bay Packers fan and occasionally we would make digs at each other regarding players or how our teams were doing. She was like a mother figure to us all. Made us feel loved and wanted in our dark days. I will be forever grateful to have met her. I will treasure memories together. As she always said to me. Much love my friend, I will miss you Annie. Until we meet again.

“ I first met annie during a 24 hour livestream on twitch in 2013. I was doing for the charity operation nina which was run by her daughter carrie, annie had a unique personality who had a very good sense of humor & always brought life to anyone she met.

It wasn't just good humor she had but kindness & wisdom. she always had good stories to tell such as the backstreet boys farmer story from her younger days.

No matter if you had good or bad days, she was always supportive of everyone & treated us as her kids.

Going to miss you annie, please watch over us & rest in peace. love you
