“ I remember Carolyn from my years at Nashotah House (1973-76) when her husband was Old Testament professor. May she rest in peace and rise in glory!

“ I'm so sad to read the news. I met Carolyn delivering her meals. She was so kind and thankful. She would always ask me to join her for lunch, and unfortunately I could not as there were more meals to be delivered. One day with a shorter list of deliveries, I told her I'd be back. She was delighted and so was I. We talked all afternoon from her kittens, California, and how she ventured here, to what shape animal she saw in a big rock outside her kitchen window. She was the salt of the earth and will be missed dearly. Rest in Peace beautiful.

“ Carolyn has been a dear friend of mine through the years. I would come to visit my father (Stan HInkins) and would share visits with her. She lived in the house next to Dad and we would visit on her patio and on occasion take rides through the countryside. She was smart and fiesty and we had many interesting conversations given the trying times of the last few years. Jerry Wagner and I were fortunate to be able to visit her in Dodgeville before she was taken from us.

I know she is in a good place now and I will miss her terribly.
