“ I met Charlotte while working at The House On The Rock a few years back, she would stop and see what project I was working on. We would visit when ever she had a few min. and the thing I loved the most was her laugh. Charlotte had a great laugh and sense of humor. I am sorry for the family's loss.

“ Charlotte and I worked together for several years at The House on the Rock. For the last year we were there we both were the Assistant Operations Managers. During winters I drove a few coworkers to work, including Charlotte, as I had a truck and could negotiate snow. Charlotte was one of our "band of sisters" and always made us laugh. Her laugh was contagious and always brightened our days. Sometimes I would get to see her at Walmart. I've missed her since we stopped working together and now I'll miss her forever. Rest in peace Charlotte.
