“ *Our condolences. Mom and dad treasured Donnie's visits. Mom liked to look out their apartment window and show me that she could see where he lived. I think it gave her comfort. Whenever they needed help they knew all they needed to do was ask and Donnie would be there. Dad has mentioned that he had been going out to lunch with Donnie and that dad enjoyed their time together. He was always respectful and kind to us and our family, He will be missed.
