“ *I am sorry for your loss.
Grandma Williams was a gem. She was one of God's finest creations who has definitely left her mark here on earth. To know her was to love her. A woman who always had a beautiful smile and a glow to her.
One day you will be reunited, but 'til then God has called upon his newest angel to join him.*

“ I met Eleanor in 2003 at Kathryn Higgins funeral. She was my Mom. Eleanor had gone to high school with my Dad, Happy Higgins. She shared some delightful stories about Dad, and some of the fun they had. I had never heard those stories, so I enjoyed our conversation more than she probably realized! A sweet lady. May she rest in peace.
