“ Frank and Harold had a lot of wild adventures when they were working at John Deere. They both love their drinks. Frank used to tell me a lot of stories about the two of them.

“ Dear Buss family, our sincere sympathy goes out to your whole family on Bud's passing. I'm sorry to say we have been out of town and,just now at this,moment found,out. Of course after the fact. We would DEFINATELY have been there to pay our respects. Harold and Bobbie went out of their way to include us in many family occasions. I had no idea,he was in Manor care and had been visiting there of late and certainly would have included him in my visits. Bud was a VERY SPECIALman and did a lot for many folks. I pray for healing for all of you and God's blessings bestowed,upon you.

“ We are sorry Bud had to leave you. Bud and Bobbie were always a joy to see and visit with. Ruth, we didn't get many happy opportunities to get to know you. We had wanted to be with the family to celebrate Bud's life but I've been sick and past it to Jack. God bless you and Peace be with you all. Caryl and Jack (niece-in-law and nephew)
