“ So sorry for your loss, Gary was a friend and will be missed at the Red Room for coffee, and discussions on Wisconsin sports teams. The one thing that I will always remember about Gary is that if he was reading the paper, leave him alone as he would not answer any questions asked of him while reading, especially the sports page. Gary rest in peace. Russ Symons

“ Gary was one heck of a great uncle!! I will always treasure the memories of our time spent together whether it was seeing him at family gatherings or when I would come and clean with mom. You would always show your kind heart and smiling face. We are gonna miss you dearly. He is probably hanging with Grandpa and Mike doing all that they loved!!
