“ I was sorry to hear about Geri's passing away. I was visiting my sister Linda during the week of Christmas so was out of town. So i did miss her funeral and visitation. I would have liked to have been there. I have so many memories of Geri from playing Bridge with her. She always had so much drive, emotion and enthusiasm for the game. I think she must have lived her life that way fully and with determination , never giving up on anything. I will miss her very much and I am sure you all will too. Maybe she doesn't have to fight so hard now that she is in Heaven.
