“ I had the privilege of meeting Hank when we were preparing for our children's wedding. I so enjoyed listening to her common sense suggestions and her attitude toward life and marriage. I knew that I was receiving a wonderful daughter-in-law. All the family should know of my sadness Upon her death.

“ To All the McCaulley Family:

We are sending our deepest sympathy to each of you with the loss of your dear mother/grandmother.

In the few times I had the honor of having conversations with her, I never met a more caring and genuine lady. She truly loved, valued, and respected all people, and has passed her legacy on, as in the evidence of how you all treated this kind woman in her last years on earth. What an example your family is to others!

May all your joyous memories help to ease your sadness of knowing she is gone; until you all meet again.

We are very sorry we were unable to attend the services today to extend our feelings in person. How wonderful it must have been to give her tribute, and to be surrounded by so many of the people whose lives she touched and shaped.

We will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

Linda (Reim) and Jerry Yatso

“ I remember Aunt Hankie taking all of us to Madison, and seeing the capital of Wisconsin for the first time. I remember her doing things devotedly and quietly, but when she had enough, she let loose:) My mom, Dorothy, misses her. They are sisters and close in age. Mother and me are praying daily prayers for our beloved dead this month of All Souls. Hankie is in them, as is my dad, my brothers, Uncle John, Uncle Vince, Aunt Ann, Uncle Paul, Aunt Mary, Uncle Don, Aunt Florence, Annette and Uncle Harold. Gracious God, look with mercy upon the souls of our dear deceased family, relatives and friends. Grant that those You have called from our homes and our hearts may enter the embrace of Your faithful and everlasting love in heaven. Eternal rest, grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace Amen. (We love you Aunt Hankie.)
