“ I was a classmate of Jim's in High School, I and my wife the former Diana Rikli visited with him a few years ago about attending a class reunion. I and Jim being boys raised on farms had that in common. We were in FFA together. Nice memories of Jim.

“ He gave me my first job at 10 years old, mowing his lawn. He'd pay me up front at the start of the summer and I would mow his lawn. One summer he somehow shot himself in the leg with a nail gun. So I'd help him carry in groceries and other stuff besides mowing the lawn. That following winter, about two days before Christmas he picked me up took me to Hardees for lunch and then took me to Wal-Mart and said, "pick out anything you want!" I picked out a few lego sets and some Spiderman action figures (I was 11). He was always a great guy to just talk to, never yelled at me when I would make a mistake, just talked to me like an adult. Great man!

“ I've known Jim for well over 20 years. You could always count on Jim 100 percent. His woodworking skill was and is on display and he was very talented. He was a careful planner and it is too bad that he did not get a chance to enjoy the retirement that he had prepared for. Dodgeville has lost a good citizen.
