Dodgeville / Oklahoma – Jamie Louise Lang, age 63, passed away Friday, August 23, 2024 at Upland Hills Health in Dodgeville, WI. Jamie was born December 30, 1960 to Sharon Gay Moore and James Edward Clark. She lived most of her life in Oklahoma and graduated Olive High School in 1979. Jamie worked various jobs, but was most proud of her education in the nursing profession as she received her LPN in 1992.

Jamie met the love of her life, Jimmy Lang, a mere 20 years ago. The two of them, were best friends. Jim and Jamie led an example of love that last in sickness and in health. No matter where the road went, they traveled the path together.

Jamie's most important title was, Mom. She cherished her babies more than anything, even Coke Zero, yarn, Greys Anatomy, gravy, and her cigarettes. As the years passed, Jamie took pride in the new titles she earned; Jamie Nan, Nana, and Chicken Nana.

Jamie will be missed by the many she has left, especially her husband, Jim Lang and daughter, Elizabeth Morrow. She is further survived by her step-children, Eric (Brandie) Yingst and Ashley (Robert) Lang/Sager.

Dear friends, whom have become family: Jamie, Jessie, Amelia, and Everly Ammann. In addition, Jamie will be missed by many other nieces, nephews, family members, and friends because to know her, was to be loved by her.

We find peace in knowing that Jamie was welcomed home by her daughter, Terri Linn as well as her parents and siblings, Jack, Jimmy, and Pamela Clark.
