

John Harland Blabaum

April 23, 1956 - March 27, 2025

Dodgeville – John Harland Blabaum, age 68, of Dodgeville, WI, passed away on March 27, 2025, at UW Hospital, surrounded by his family, following a long struggle with congestive heart failure.

Born on April 23, 1956, in Dodgeville to Beauford and Mildred (James) Blabaum. He grew up with two brothers and kept his parents on their toes. John enjoyed farming alongside his grandpa and uncles and developed a love for working on cars. He graduated from Dodgeville High School in 1974, attended Fennimore Vocational School, and then enlisted in the Army, where he served in the Army Reserves.

John married Marilyn Ruppert in 1978, and together they raised three children: Janean, Eric, and Brad. Over the years, John worked in a variety of fields, including as a mechanic at Ladd Implement and Hennessey Implement, and briefly at Dodgeville Agri Service. He and Marilyn created countless memories while farming for 25 years where John particularly enjoyed milking his jersey cows and driving his Ford tractors. During his farming years, he also volunteered as an EMT and worked as an emergency room tech at Upland Hills Health.

In 1999, John changed careers and pursued nursing, attending Nursing School and later working at Upland Hills Health, St. Mary's Hospital, UW

Hospital, and Dean Health Clinic. Known for his easy smile, sense of humor, and mischievous spirit, John was beloved by both his patients and co-workers.

John had a passion for both creating and savoring delicious food, finding joy in every bite. He enjoyed working on his John Deere tractor, driving his red Ford truck, and spending time golfing and bowling with his family and friends. He also cherished family breakfasts, watching western shows, and stopping by Dodgeville Agri Service for a cup of coffee.

He is survived by his wife Marilyn (Ruppert) Blabaum; children Janean (Ryan) Marr, Eric (Pam) Blabaum, Brad (Mary) Blabaum; grandchildren Mason Marr and Beau Blabaum; parents Beauford and Mildred Blabaum; brothers Jim (Patti) Blabaum and Mark (Ange) Blabaum; In-laws Norma (Galen) Baker, Ken (Karin) Ruppert, Jean (Scott) Halvorson, Phil Ruppert, Annette Maybaum; along with many nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

He is preceded in death by his in-laws Ernest and Delores Ruppert and brother-in-law Rusty Maybaum.

“ Sorry for your loss.
I first met John as a large animal veterinarian when he was milking cows. He was always happy and in a good mood. Through his kids and family, we have kept in touch.
No words can even come close to expressing how it feels when you lose someone you love. Hope you know you are being thought of with friendship and caring.

“ Marilyn Janean Eric and Brad,
So Sorry for your loss.
Seems like everything in John's world was a smile shared. Cheerful in storming weather, never shirked a task and landed a hand where needed. Saw him in Ladds shop, with his Jerseys , throwing bowling balls and cheering up people.
I am certain you'll want him here at times but His joy with his SAavior and others who pasted the Heavenly gates before him will keep him company till ya all join him in the circle in the Sky!

“ To John's Family. So sorry to hear of his death. I was fortunate to have worked with him at UHH. He in ER and I in the lab. When he brought stuff into the lab, I always saw a big smile and a joke or witty comment. Always a ray of light. I watched his career in nursing grow. He was a hard worker for his patients, community and his coworkers. One of those people you feel blessed to work with.
Grieving and celebrating a wonderful person!
