

Joseph T. "Joey" Scheidegger

July 5, 1982 - June 7, 2013

Ridgeway - Joseph Thomas Scheidegger, age 30, of Ridgeway, died on Friday, June 7, 2013 at Bloomfield Manor in Dodgeville, from long term complications related to head injuries suffered in an automobile accident, by a drunk driver on September 5, 2011.

Joe was born July 5, 1982 in Madison, WI to Thomas and Glenda (Short) Scheidegger.

Joe attended area schools and was largely raised on the family farm. He loved all sports and was especially gifted at wrist wrestling and demolition derby. Joe was a hard worker who had great skills in a wide variety of areas including construction, landscaping and auto mechanics.

Joe is survived by his son, and greatest accomplishment, James R. Scheidegger; his parents Thomas J. and Glenda F. Scheidegger; sister Kysa F. Scheidegger; her children, Nevaeh, Kyler and Atira Joe; paternal grandmother Monica Weier; maternal grandparents Arthur and Charlotte Tibbs of Mentor, OH; and close friend Kristin Haag. He will also be missed by many aunts, uncles, cousins and the members of the Shag Enterprize demo team.

Joe was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Ralph Scheidegger and beloved uncles Greg and Paul.

Thank you to the staff at Clearview Hospital in Juneau and Mundth Haven Home in Wisconsin Dells, for their efforts in the progress Joe made, attempting to recover in their care. A special thanks to Bloomfield Manor for their care and support in our final days with Joe.

A memorial service in Joe's honor will be held on his birthday, July 5, at 11:00 am at St. Bridget's Catholic Church in Ridgeway, WI. A private burial at St. Bridget's Catholic Cemetery will follow. A celebration of Joe's life will begin at 4:00 pm in Jonesdale.

Tribute Wall

“ Joseph T. "Joey" Scheidegger

November 15, 2022 at 06:49 AM

“ a beautiful spirit that got his wings to early,R.I.P. Joe

marie lewis - April 28, 2018 at 02:20 AM

“ Glenda, he definitely has your eyes. I'm so sorry for your loss. I was never blessed with children, but I know it must be hard. Heck, I have a hard enough time loosing a pet!

Micky - April 28, 2018 at 02:20 AM

“ I leave you with James' favorite quote, from the book A Tale of Two Cities, by Charles Dickens;"It is a far, far better thing that I do, than I have ever done; It is a far, far better rest that I go to no, than I have ever known."Joe will live on in James. May he be at peace.

Lacey - April 28, 2018 at 02:20 AM

“ I have few memories of Joe. The ones I do have are of a bright boy that was good natured and smiled at me lot. Rest in Peace Joe. Bonum est proselatare cum silentio salutare Dei-it is good to wait in silence for the coming of God

Al Short - April 28, 2018 at 02:20 AM

“ I remember our move to Ridgeway from Madison. Joey became a good and best friend to all of our boys. Joey smiled and had a great sense of humor. Joey loved his life and felt very much at home in the house where he used to live.
As you know we lost Tim and Mike soon followed. It is a very personal experience and different for each person.
My heart is with joy that Joey had a son and saddened that he will not get to know his father.
I am sure when James smiles his Dad is smiling also.
I just wanted you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely, Mary Ellen Schuchardt [X Spellman]

April 28, 2018 at 02:20 AM

“ Joe,

I wish we would have had the opportunity to have spent more time together although I am grateful what little time we did have. You had an amazing sense of humor and contagious laugh. You will be missed, dearly.

Michael Bordelon - April 28, 2018 at 02:20 AM