“ Judy had been my pen and email pal for 49 years... since we were both in 5th grade. We had an immediate connection back then that remained all of these years. I live in Maine and we had always planned to meet "one day". I learned through Judy's letters what a sweet, loving, giving person she was to everyone. Every letter that she sent to me spoke of the joys and adventures of her husband, their daughters and their grandchildren. I will forever cherish our letters and the adorable "Grandma's Bag" that she sent to me after I was blessed with the long awaited birth of my first grandbaby this year. What a beautiful spirit... I will miss you, Sweet Judy...

“ One of my favorite memories is going to Dodgeville for Thanksgiving and knowing I was going to get a present from my Godmother Judy...I always got two...one for my birthday and one for Christmas. I was always excited to open her gifts because they were always "cool" clothes or "fun" toys that I had wanted. As I got older, I cherished her loving words of encouragement and her laugh. I love her so much and miss her so deeply

“ Jim, I'm so sorry for your loss. It came as a sudden shock to me. Judy was such a sweetheart. I remember the day's on the Miller family farm when I was about 5 or 6 years old, my brother Bob was just over a year older than me. Bob had a crush on Julie and followed her everywhere she went. I likewise followed Judy around. I always thought she was so sweet, she was so busy doing chores but always took time to talk. She showed me how to milk the cows but I never did get the hang of it. It sure was fun coming up to Dodgeville for the summers. May God Bless you and yours, till we see Judy again. Love to all, Steve Mateski
