“ Kathy was a Manager at Alliant-Energy when I first met her. She was very friendly and always would be one of those folks to include you in group settings.

Later we became friends and after she left Alliant-Energy we stayed in touch with a group of ladies by establishing a monthly card club. This really helped me because my husband and recently passed away and offered companionship at a critical time in my life.

We always had good laughs, and liked to share stories of our lives. She gave me friendship which is a gift.

I am so glad she gave it all during her illness and enjoyed life as much as possible. We will miss her. Marlene

“ I met Kathy at Alliant Energy and worked closely with her and her team in IT Security. Our paths crossed in business as well after leaving Alliant Energy because we had a lot in common in our field.

We remained friends and after she left Alliant Energy and I saw her at small gatherings for birthdays or dinner, as well as when I could make it to monthly card club.

I lost my mother to colon cancer not long before Kathy was diagnosed, my heart went out to her immediately when she told me, and my prayers have been with her and her family.

She fought hard, and whenever I saw her she found a way to remain positive during the most difficult time in her life.

I am so glad she was able to travel, make memories, and enjoy life with her family and friends before passing.

“ I was honored and blessed to have known Kathy both professionally and as a friend. I first met Kathy years ago when I was fortunate to be able to secure her talents as a consultant for an assignment at WPS and we stayed close over the years and I was able to get to know her even better as we worked together very closely these past couple of years in the area of Security & Compliance. She was an integral and vital part of the growth and development of Three Pillars and we would not be where we are today without her hard work and efforts and the many relationships that she helped develop. Kathy's skills, work ethic and professional ethics were always beyond approach they were at a level many would aspire for but could only dream of reaching. Her greatest impact though was as a friend and simply watching her and the strength and attitude that she displayed in the face of all the challenges this past year was to be admired and inspiring --- I'll miss her and her smile greatly, as will all of us at Three Pillars.

“ Kathy and I met years ago while working for Unocal. We had a great time together on audits in the field and at home. Evenings out were always fun; she made it that way. Loved her laugh and giggle when something struck her funny bone.

So glad we had some time last year to visit. And grateful for all the phone conversations of late.

I will miss talking with Kath. She was so brave during her late journey. So proud of her but that was Kathy's way. Grace and dignity! Quite the lady...

My sympathy to the family. Prayers to all.
