

Marietta S. Edgington

June 6, 1935 - March 1, 2023

Dodgeville / Cobb – Marietta Stella (Muller) Edgington, age 87, passed away on Wednesday, March 1, 2023 at St. Mary’s Hospital in Madison, surrounded by her loving children.

Marietta Stella (Muller) Edgington was born on June 6, 1935 to Charles and Mary (Pluemer) Muller of Tennyson, Wisconsin. Marietta was the youngest of three children, having an older brother Gilbert and an older sister Mildred. She often reminisced about the “simple pleasures” of her childhood – walking home from school for lunch, playing ball with her friends, fishing with her dad, and their cow “Putzy” who ran to the fence to greet them.

Marietta met the love of her life Wayne “Papa” Edgington at a wedding dance. Marietta and Wayne were married on October 12, 1955, and moved to the Edgington home farm. Together they ran a dairy farm and raised their five children: Michael, Edward, Lori, Mark, and John. She took their house and made it a home, welcoming all who entered to share a meal, a story, and friendship. While you may enter her home as a stranger, you would leave as a friend.

Marietta enjoyed spending time with family and friends, visiting, playing Euchre, Horse and Pepper, or a game of Rumikub – But don’t be fooled by that sweet smile and gentle demeanor – she was playing to win. Marietta was an active member of Homemakers and enjoyed this time with her friends. The time she cherished most was making memories with her children, their spouses, and her grandchildren as they shared holidays together and celebrated all of life's special moments – big and small.

Marietta is survived by her children Lori (Jim) Edgington-Stieber, Mark (Sue) Edgington, John (Erin) Edgington; her 7 grandchildren: Andre, Valerie, Abbie, and Michael Edgington; Gwendolyn Hyslop; Brianna (Jena) Dietzman-Hyslop; and Seppi (Alana) Lehner; 3 great-grandchildren: Jamyang and Pema Hyslop; and Naeva Lehner; and many nieces, nephews, and friends.

On March 1, 2023, God called Marietta home. She was preceded in death by her husband Wayne, her sons Michael and Edward, and her grandson Sasha Edgington.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, March 6, 2023 at ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC CHURCH in Dodgeville. Burial will be held in St. Thomas Cemetery in Montfort. Friends may call from 9:00 a.m. until 10:50 a.m. on Monday at ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC CHURCH in Dodgeville.

“ Marietta was a kind and friendly neighbor to us for seven years in Dodgeville. I enjoyed our conversations, her waves and sweet hellos. She enjoyed watching our dogs play in our yard across the street from her house. Rest In Peace sweet and kind neighbor. We will surely miss you on Bequette St. Julie and Jeff Roll “ Sending love and peace to all of Marietta's family. She was a dear friend to our mother, Arlene Beerkircher. The last time mom visited her, I dropped her off at Marietta's house for the afternoon. They chatted for hours and when I went to pick up mom, I ended up staying for another hour visiting with Marietta. She was such a friendly, loving, person. She is with our mom again now. Our thoughts are with you at this time. The Beerkircher family - Karen, Pam, Penny, Randy, Rick, Tracy, and Russ

“ My sympathy to all the family. I first met Marietta playing cards at Tony's Tap before Covid when she and Wilma Dolan came over to Point play. Through Covid I didn't see her, then after Covid, Wilma and Marietta came over to have lunch and play with a group of ladies of which I was a part of. She always had a smile and lots of spunk. I felt bad when she quit the group due to not feeling well. I did call and talk to her several times on the phone after that. May this lovely lady rest in peace. Donna Toay
