“ Although Mark & I were classmates at St. Mary's we were more importantly, playmates, as we lived only two blocks away in Mineral Point. I won't chronicle here all the fun we had together, nor the kid trouble we used to get into. I hadn't seen Mark in 50 years, until the year we had our 50th Reunion from St. Mary's, then I saw Mark twice.

So sorry for your loss

“ McGoo was a member of my family for as long as I can remember; my dad's business partner as well as partner in crime, hi-jinks & shenanigans. It is with a heavy heart that I bid him farewell. I know he is having a grand time being reunited with all the loved ones that went before us. Godspeed, McGoo - until we meet again!

“ Dear Susan, Colleen, Erin, Quinn, and Frank, I was very sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved husband / father. May God bless you and hold you in the palm of His hand at this sad time. Mark was a very nice man who was always friendly when I stopped in at the bar in Mineral Point or at the Dodgeville grocery store. I don't know Susan or Frank very well, but I have many fond memories of my late husband Edwin Bendik and I spending time with Colleen, Erin, and Quinn when we came to visit their mom Joann when they were little. So I wanted to write and tell you that I am sorry for your loss. Sincerely, Susan Bendik

“ I remember Mark as a stand up guy. He was a real man, a hero in my book. He stood up for me and my friend when a few people in a bar were being ignorant. He told them to leave me alone, let me have my say. I did. Thanks Mark for always being a gentleman, a kind friend, and a real man. Can't say that I have met any of those yet where I reside now. Mark, you were one of the last "good guys" left. I'm sure you are with our maker now and I hope to see you there someday and I will surely smile and say hello, kind Sir.
