“ I'm so sorry for you loss. Maisie was such a wonderful lady. I always loved going to her house as a child. Us children playing while her and my dad would talk over a "cup of tea". She will be missed by so many.

“ My daughters were thrilled when their Great Aunt Maisie came to visit us in Castle Dale, Utah. They asked me if Aunt Maisie was a movie star. I told them she was and explained that she had glamour, manners and was a great Irish person. They love her so much. I do too. At the time I was a daycare provider and would not allow anyone to get into the car unless they had their shoes on My daughters hid Aunt Maisie's shoes in one of their beds so that she would not be able to leave us. They wanted her to stay longer. However, we found the shoes and she was able to take the Amtrack to California with Hazel and Edna.

Will always love her.

“ I was so sad to hear my dear Aunt Maisie passed away. We were actually trying to make it to Dodgeville soon for a visit. Mom has had a lot of health problems since last summer, in and out of hospital many times, making travel difficult for us. I have so many wonderful memories of Aunt Maisie. She was one of the most awesome women I have EVER met. So lovable, wise, funny... I could go on and on about fun times and things she taught me. She was practical and no nonsense.... told me the last time I saw her... things often are exactly as they seem. So accept it as much as it hurts be strong do what you gotta do and move forward. Make each day better than the day before should be a goal. She was always a role model for me. I loved her visits... so did my children. On the 11th of April 2015... my mother and I were discussing a change in hairstyle for me on the way to the salon. She asked me why I keep putting blonde hair dye on my natural dark hair. She said "you wanna be like Aunt Maisie don't you?". I answered with another question "doesn't everyone?". She said when she first met Aunt Maisie when she first married Uncle John... she had long dark hair. Then would dye it for many years, but my mom, as you know just says what she thinks, always liked her natural darker hair. So sorry for everyone's loss. She will be missed. Too bad I didn't simply get a message she just died her hair instead of that she is gone to us forever. We will remember her fondly and never forget her sweetness and how she referred to everyone as "love".
