“ Nancy is our angel now..I looked up the definition and it reads a person having qualities generally attributed to an angel, as beauty, purity, or kindness. This fits her so well, and helps knowing she will be above protecting us all. Nancy was like a second mom to me, always making sure I was ok, especially since I broke my back. For the 15 plus year I was blessed to know her I will always be grateful. I miss you more than words can express...I will love you always!!
