“ My deepest condolences to the entire Hying family. Your mother was such a lovely lady and always so kind and polite, and never greeted you without a smile. I visited with her most recently while at Upland Hills with my dad, (she was with Maggie), and in conversation, I told her that she had less wrinkles than I do and didn't look a day past 60. She smiled that beautiful smile then giggled a little and said, "Oh dear, thank you. I wish I had a nickel to give you or maybe even a quarter" and we both laughed out loud. She was such a beautiful soul and always a pleasure to visit with. May her beautiful memory forever live on in the loved ones around you. God bless!Annie

“ So many times when I'd be at church with my mother (Pat Rock), I'd see Phyllis and she would always smile and say hello after mass. She was so kind to everyone and Mom loved running into her. May she rest in peace and watch down on her kids and grandkids and keep them safe. Marianne (Fred Rock) McCrary
