“ Bob came to our home in Argyle not long after we moved in to repair our vacuum system. He stayed for quite a while sharing and telling stories with myself and Terry. He was a very sweet, gentle man.

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of Bob to all the family. Bob was a great neighbor, friend for years when Dick/I were on the farm and since we moved to town. We enjoyed card club with them and many other neighbors in the area with many super fun times to remember. Mike you and Ron worked for us in your high school years so have good memories there as well. Enjoyed many good visits after mass at St. Mary's with Blanche so our connection is cherished of all of you. Had many good chats with Bob at the Pointer Cafe as well. My hugs, love and prayers in your time of sorrow. Keep the good memories to help your heal. Rosalie R. May
