“ I learned of the loss of the Jacobson family today at work. I think my heart skipped a beat. Shocked but not unexpected. Grateful that I got to see Bob one more time last week. Funny how things play out because he was on my mind as he often was...and then he appeared. Unfortunately, things didn't turn out as I wanted for my favorite patient in the whole world, he was going to stay, then circumstances beyond my control said no and I hugged him and said goodbye, he went home. Little did I know , it would be the last time I saw Bob. All our conversations and hours together, so special to me. God Speed. Love to you Bob and all of your family that I got to know in the last year. Ginny
