“ My deepest sympathy to the Reeson family. When John and I were first married and we would get done milking the cows we used to visit the family when they lived on short cut road. Ralph would still be milking cows and John would go to the barn and I would go to the house. I know the pain of loosing family loved ones. It never quite goes away. It has just been a year since we lost our son Scott. Scott was 48 years old, Your brother now is in the palm of God's hands and the Angels have their wings wrapped around him. You are all in my prayers. Jean JonesBarneveld.

“ We are so sad for all the Reeson family. Robin was a friend of our boys since he and Kevin were 4 years old. Kevin always said that the best birthday party he ever went to was one of Robins. He got to swing on a rope in the barn, and ride a pony.He will be missed.
