

Roland M. "Pete" Dyreson

July 12, 1951 - May 9, 2026

Ridgeway - Roland "Pete" Dyreson, age 74, of Ridgeway, passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, May 9, 2026.

Pete was born on July 12, 1951 to Milo and Melva (Mickelson) Dyreson. Pete graduated from Barneveld High School in 1969 and went into the Marine Corps. Pete married Lana Oimoen on August 12, 1972 in Daleyville, WI, sharing almost 54 years of marriage. Pete pursued his career of farming, truck driving, and construction.

Pete was hard to pin down for too long. Always on the move between working on the Swenson farm at the saw mill, UTVing, hunting, fishing, golfing, spending winters in Florida, or somewhere helping someone out. He loved working in his shed and keeping up with his own property. Nothing made him more happy than spending time with his kids and grandson.

Pete could often be found in long drawn out quarrels in the woodshop, tussling with cherry, oak, walnut, and his nemesis...hickory. He rarely lost, often won. Creating stunning every day items like cutting boards, rocking horses, and furniture. Upon hearing of Pete's passing, the local hardwood trees collectively breathed a sigh of relief.

Pete is survived by his wife Lana, son Devon (Ana) Dyreson, daughter

Danielle Dyreson, grandson Elden Dyreson, brother Bernie (Denise) Dyreson, and sister Lois (Bill) Lease and many nieces and nephews. Pete was preceded in death by his brother Wayne (Beverly), sister Sandy, brother Eugene "Buster", brother Floyd "Junior", father Milo, and mother Melva.

A Memorial Visitation will be held on Thursday, May 14, 2026 from 4:00 until 7:00 PM at the GORGEN-McGINLEY & AYERS FUNERAL HOME in Dodgeville.

A Celebration of Pete's Life will be held later this summer in August of 2026.

In lieu of flowers the family asks for any donations be made to the Barneveld American Legion or the Badger Honor Flight.

“ So very sorry to hear of Pete's passing Lana,. I'll always remember our fishing trip to the Mississippi River and learning about the "Rule of 72" for investing while milking cows with Pete. I've passed the "Rule of 72" along to hundreds of friends and students over the years. A great man and mentor. Our thoughts and hugs to you and your family.

“ Dear, where do we begin. We met Pete in Florida. Quiet, to himself kinda guy, but quick to jump in and help a neighbor. You could always count on Pete to give you a hand. Wonderful soul. Huge loss. Hugs, love to the family. Don & Sherri Hinchman.
