“ I was truly saddened to hear of Griff's passing. I will remember him fondly. He would often drive up from Florida and meet us at Nascar races. Memories of time spent with him are pleasant. He was a good guy, always great to talk to, a really decent human being, and I am certain was a great teacher and coach. My sympathy and thoughts go to my friend Gary, Griff's children and sister, Cliffie, Sandy and the rest of the family. A good soul has left us. Peace and blessing to you all. Ellen Nordvig

“ Coach "G". Our kids will never forget you. Nicole, Tony, and Ross Lawrence loved you. What ever you did to influence these kids in such a way brings smiles to their faces just mentioning your name. There was never a coach or person who truly stole their hearts. You instilled joy and competitiveness together in all sports. Humor was the important factor. Hearing the stories from the locker room are hilarious. Thank you for inspiring so many young lives and lives of parents too. The Lawrence Family will remember you as long as we live. What a loss to the world now that you're gone. Sending love to your family and children.
