“ Dear family of Russ, My condolences to you. I taught with him at St. Scholastic Academy in the mid 80s. We joined the Colorado Springs Chorale together and would ride to and from rehearsals together and hourish each way. He loved that group and was very dedicated. He was a kind and funny and patient teacher. Thoughts and prayers to you.

“ Im so sorry for your loss. I struggled and hated math until Mr . Krase became my teacher at St. Scholastica. I still love math to this day. He had to be a saint to have the kind of patience he did to teach crazy high school girls at a school run by benedictan nuns. We were all very lucky to have him in our lives.
