“ I am sending my sincere condolences. Over the years we found our paths crossing and shared many many laughs. The most recent meeting was one that we shared many laughs about and led to spending a lot time together pre/post surgery. He spoke highly of his family. Being a survivor myself we spoke often of why people would opt for an "easy" way. I lost my both my son and brother and now Mose to this awful disease. I will miss spending time and conversations with him, we spoke last 2 days before his passing with promises of visiting. I feel your pains, please accept my heartfelt sympathies.

“ My sympathy to the family and friends of Scott. Just reconnected this past year with facebook and enjoyed his comments or questions. It seemed to me that he knew what was most important in his life. His family and his friends. May he now rest in peace and may you enjoy the memories and may they ease your pain. RIP Scott

“ Scott will truly be missed. He was a a kind friend and is a wonderful soul. His passing is another reminder to the rest of us of how short and awesome life is. We know Mose lived his entire life with that motto. I can't ever remember a day or time when I saw him, either way back in the day or in recent times, he wasn't loving life and having fun. Give em a hell of a good time on the big gridiron in the sky #53. Party on and Gods speed Mose man!

“ I have trouble finding the words as I have such a heavy heart. You will be missed so much! Your smile, your laugh, your love for nature -- these are just a few of the things I will miss. I pray that your pain is now gone and with your faithful companion you are enjoying all that heaven has to offer. My condolences to the family as your loss is great. Keep an eye on us, Mose. It just won't be the same without you. Till we meet again my friend . . .

“ My dearest Nephew. How well I remember the day you were born! Hunting season, blizzard, yes all of those; but what I remember most was sitting in Senior Year of High School waiting to hear whether I was Aunt to nephew or niece. Also, your birth coincided with the 1 year anniversary of the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated the previous year, November 22, 1964 almost to the minute of his death announcement. Two of my best friends and I all became aunts that year within just a few months of each other. What fun to watch as you all took your first steps, went off to school for the first time, got your drivers licenses. All of the fun things that kids do, and that aunts take job in. Then you went into the military, and thank you for that. Thanks to all of our service members for their caring and passion for these United States and what it means to be free. Then came the terrible day in July when your beloved mom Jeanie passed away. The changes in you all started when, and the demons that you faced for oh so very long, finally got the best of you. God saw you suffering and allowed to come home and be with your Mom, your Grand parents and all of the friends and loved ones that have gone on before us. You were loved so very much, but just never really accepted that. I hope that you and Fish are at peace now and have finally found what you were searching for all of those years. I love you, Scotty Boy. Love, Aunt Joanie

“ To Tammy and family, my heartfelt sympathy to you all in the death of your brother. His picture is wonderful, full of smiles, remember him that way. Both you and Scott were in school with my Swiggum kids at Mt. Horeb. Your Mom was special and I remember her as well.
Blessed be their lives and always remember the good times.
Love, blessings and prayers,
Linda Swiggum Gerke and family
