Vickie was always taking care of others in a very selfless way. If her help was needed by a family member, she was there in a heartbeat, if not in person but with encouraging words. We have a saying in our family, "Family looks after Family" and she did it to the fullest.

Please send any memorials to Agrace Hospice, Madison in Vickie's name. They only had her for 24 hours, but it was the best 24 hours of her final journey.

“ My aunt Vickie was one of a kind. She always said what was on her mind and she didn't cut any corners when it came to telling it like she saw it but she then always had encouraging words when they were need too. I'm so glad that you got to see my kids grow up and got to see my grandkids. I will miss you so much. I love you.
