

Wendell Dean Jones

November 29, 1945 - August 19, 2020

Dodgeville - Wendell Dean Jones, 74, of Dodgeville and formerly of Platteville, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, August 19, 2020, at Upland Hills Health in Dodgeville. He was born on November 29, 1945, the son of Wendell and Mary (Bride) Jones. He graduated from Iowa-Grant High School in 1964.

Wendell, who went by Dean, grew up helping on the family farm. He then worked mostly in a factory setting during his life, including a position as a welder at John Deere for many years. Dean was also a U.S. Marine Corps veteran. He loved to ride his Harley, play pool, laugh, and joke. He had a great sense of humor and could sometimes be described as a little mischievous. Dean was also an extremely good wrestler. In 1964, his senior year in high school, he went undefeated (24-0) at 103 lbs to become Iowa-Grant's first state champion in wrestling.

Survivors include his children, Deana (Norman), Shannon (Amanda), Justin (Gretchen), and Jamie; five grandchildren; one great grandchild; one brother, Darrell; three sisters, JoAn (Ed) Blaine, Joyce (Tom) White, Jackie (Kevin) Krupke; and many other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents and brother Dale.

The family would like to thank Upland Hills Health and especially Sunnyside

Assisted Living Home for their compassionate care of Dean.

Private family services will be held in Mineral Point at Gorgen Funeral Home and burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery.

“ I met Dean through his sister Jackie. I took care of his Mom one summer when they lived at the Cabins in Mineral Point. As Sherry mentioned, Dean had an infectious laugh. He was a lot of fun to be around...always up for an adventure. RIP Dean!

“ As you probably know, we were friends beginning so very long ago. I was actually a teenager when I met your Dad and Mom. A lot of memories but one thing that really stands out in my mind is his laugh! You had to laugh just because he was laughing! Rest in peace Dean! Hugs to everyone.
